My dear Jones
Accept my best thanks for so kindly sending me a copy of your book on “the Teaching of the Articles”; I hope to be a gainer by the perusal of it. Our younger Clergy and students need such books as yours and I trust that they will be materially helped by your exposition of the Articles.

Last night my niece and I were dining with Mrs Barker, widow of the late Bishop of Sydney, Bishop Mander, Miss Macartney, and others; it was a pleasure to be thus reminded of years spent in Australia. Mr Morris’s two eldest daughters are now in England, and they have been spending a few days with is; it has been a great pleasure to me to see them. Mr Morris has sent me an account of the late Church Assembly at Melbourne; his son delivered his maiden speech there. I suppose you have hear of the enlargement of Bishops-court, Melbourne.

Please to remember me cery kindly to your dear wife & believe me Yrs most sincerely

F.F. Goe (Bishop)
