To Rev Canon Jones

Rev Sir,

I would have written to you sooner in connection with this matter, but I have been waiting for the results of my last examination; since these are not to hand yet the Dean thought I had better write at once.

Of course you are aware that it is my desire should I be ordained at the end of the year to obtain a curacy in Sydney and then attend lectures at Moore College with a view to qualifying for the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary Examination later on.

I am writing at the suggestion of the Dean to ask the Archbishop to permit me to officiate in the Diocese of Sydney – I send the letter by the same post as this, perhaps if you could see him the difficulty might be got over more easily.

I would be also very grateful to you if you could help me in the way of obtaining a suitable curacy – you understand best what would be required.

I will also write to Archdeacon Langley he may be able to help me in this direction.

Could you let me know at an early date your advice on the whole matter and just what you would expect of me in the way of qualification for entrance should I be able to come?

I have lectures on the 2\textsuperscript{nd} year work and will be willing to do my utmost to work up to the necessary standard.

Will be glad of an early reply.

I am

Yours obediently

J.A. Rowell
