Correspondence: J.A. Rowell to Nathaniel Jones, Tuesday

Rowell, J.A.

https://myrrh.library.moore.edu.au:443/handle/10248/14563
Downloaded from Myrrh, the Moore College Institutional Repository
Campbell Dr.

Eagelshaw

Tuesday

Dear Canon Jones,

Dear Sir,

Just received your letter a short time ago. Sorry to hear that Canon Boyce should so suddenly alter his mind; it came as a bit of a disappointment for I feel sure that I could have done the work that he desired in the parcel. However, after some consideration I Easter Day (Sunday). You have my gratitude for so quickly answering my letter, and for your kindness and trouble in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

J. A. Dowell.

Have sent away a letter to Mr. Greenwood, sure it will all this morning.

I have decided to apply for the other position. As you say it will be much lighter as regards work, but the salary is very low, and financially it will be a big strain on my parents. However, I leave the matter in God's hands and feel sure it will all work together for good in the end. Should I be able to come over to Sydney I won't be able to leave here till April.