My dear Mr Jones
I need not say how very anxious your letter has made me & I shall await with earnest prayer the result of your consultation with Dr Cox. Of course you must do whatever is considered best by him, and we can only pray that the Lord’s purposes may be fulfilled in it all – I am deeply anxious about the College, it is the one hopeful element in the Evangelical cause in these Colonies at present and under you it has so risen in theological reputation and cannot now be despised by those who are undermining the Church in these colonies.
But the College and its beloved Principal are both in the Lord’s hands and we can only wait and pray.
Certainly if you came back you must have help, and I have been wondering if we could secure Berry to give you some assistance. He could come to me if Godfrey Smith does not return to me, and might give part of his time to you for some small remuneration.
At any rate if Dr. Cox advises you to return you may rely upon me to do anything that be in my power to forward your plans.
With kindest regards to Mrs Jones
I am
Yours sincerely
A.L. Langley
