THE CHURCH RECORD.

Our London Letter.

From Our Own Correspondent.

London, February 17, 1906.

Since my last letter the Archbishop of Canterbury has announced the result of all the consultations that have been taking place as to the possibility of the Church of England at least being represented at the Council of Nicaea. We learn that our Church has been decided upon (for the end of October and beginning of November next; that its title is to be "Council of Repentance and Hope"; and that while Nonconformists (if they choose) should make their own arrangements for a similar effort on similar lines and at a corresponding period, "the Church will work on its own lines and will work out its own plans and methods and put its own message on its own lines." The Episcopal also has given us the word it will be able to consult with other denominations in the matter. So it is in all things a matter of consultation, and I am afraid that is the way in which this thing is going to be settled.

Drunk and Enemy.

The subject which provoked the best discussion was that of "Drunk and Enemy." "Drunk" was put down on the Agenda in terms of the aim of our ecclesiastical and economic life, but the word "Enmity" was later added, so that the title of the subject was, "Enmity and the Church of England." The question of the Church's attitude towards her own members, and the need for a public statement as to the nature and extent of her relations with her own people, was referred to the "Drunk and Enemy" Committee.

"Drunk and Enemy" is it word to lie in the future of the Church of England? Yes, "Drunk and Enemy" is it word to lie in the future of the Church of England? The question of the Church's attitude towards her own members, and the need for a public statement as to the nature and extent of her relations with her own people, was referred to the "Drunk and Enemy" Committee.

The Standard of Revolt.

The English-speaking world was startled on May 1st to hear of the formation of a new political party, the "Socialist Party," in England. The party was founded by a group of radical labor leaders, who are determined to bring about a revolution in society. The party's program includes the abolition of private property, the establishment of a socialist state, and the redistribution of wealth. The party's leader is a charismatic figure, who has captured the imagination of the working class with his fiery speeches and his promise of a better world. The party's fortunes have soared, and it is expected to become a major political force in the near future.

Thoughts on the Church Seasons.

Sunday mid-Afternoon. (April 14.)

THE DEATH OF CHRIST.

The Epistle for the Holy Week is an exhortation to the saving of the soul. Christ died for our sins (1 Cor. 2:2), and the Church is called upon to remember that He was crucified to save us (Acts 20:28). On Sunday, according to the Gospel (John 12:24), the Church is called upon to consider the doctrine of the death of the Lord Jesus. Important Gatherings of the Sydney Clergy.

The CHURCH RECORD.

The QUICK DAY.

The first definite step towards the General Conference is to be held in the University of Sydney on March 9th. The Conference is to be held on March 9th, and it is expected that a large number of clergy will be present.

The Scene of Occasion.

Rev. B. B. H. Winston, the second assistant bishop, was present at the Church. He is expected to be present at the meeting.

The Opportunity of the Moment.

Archbishop Martin spoke of the enthrallment when God's Spirit was set free, and he reminded us that no prophet is greater than his Master. The Archbishop said that he had heard his Master's voice, and that he was ready to answer it. He reminded us that we must not be content with the words of the Lord, but that we must be ready to answer his Spirit when it is set free.

Revival.

A deepened sense of the need of further power of the Holy Spirit was manifested.

The Lessons of History.

The lessons of history are applicable to the present time. We are called to remember that the Holy Spirit has been the power that has brought about the great changes in the history of the world. We are called to remember that the Holy Spirit has been the power that has brought about the great changes in the history of the world.

The Church and the World.

We are all called to remember the power of the Holy Spirit in the history of the world. We are all called to remember the power of the Holy Spirit in the history of the world.

The Voice of Resurrection.

(Translated into the Greek by E. B. Reid.

They closed the tears and bared it to the sun. The Lord's power revealed itself. The Lord's power revealed itself.

The Friends of Armenia.

Mr. John Rosier, understanding of the Armenian need, said that he was sure that the Armenian church would be reached by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The appreciation the appeal.

Notes on Books.

At this hour our Church is calling its children to observe Holy Week, "Still Work," the week before Easter. Each year, as we come to this week, and meditate on the Epistles and Gospels of that time, our love grows toward our Lord. Our Lord has brought us to our minds and hearts, to make a mark of them. We go on Good Friday, as we gather in spirit and in union with the marvellous lessons it has to teach. We shall never take it out of our hearts, its inward majesty and grandeur. As we think of the time when we were at Calvary, and all that has passed, we may be more deeply moved by the power of the Holy Spirit,Good Friday means:

1. A solemn, holy, and reverent spirit.
2. The salvation wrought by that Cross.

Each year, as we come to this week, we are so moved by the power of the Holy Spirit, as to be moved by the power of the Cross.

Six Week Closing.

Writing in the "Chesington Magazone," the Archdeacon says: "If we have a Renewal of the Church in the time of closing figures in this State, and the week before this is not very impressive, not a very critical time, it shows how great it is to achieve a closing.

A week's work seems to be a great deal, but in the actual act of doing it, the body of the church is made up of truths, and the words which are used to express it, and on which the church itself is built, and the deeds of God's grace are performed. For instance, there is a great deal of truth and development in the body of the church, and there are those who are not as interested in the closing of the church as in the church itself. The church has been in many ways, and the church is the church itself. The church in the time of closing figures in this State, is not very impressive, not a very critical time, it shows how great it is to achieve a closing.

We shall also have a Renewal of the Church in the time of closing figures in this State, and the week before this is not very impressive, not a very critical time, it shows how great it is to achieve a closing.

"Will It Matter for One?" (By E. C. Walker, in "Our Empire").

Oh, mother, dear, it is nice to be at home again. At least I feel it now. It was very nice at the front, but it had its drawbacks, and I feel much happier here.

It was not the first night at the Esterhazy ball that/Footer injected her star into the sky and went to her.

Mrs. Grange and her oldest son, Percy, were the guests of honor. Their debut was made with great pomp and circumstance. Everyone had an eye on them, and they were the life of the party.

The keggers had seen the school story there, or they held the party responsible. Every kill had an eye on him, but little Esterhazy was so dressed up that nobody could tell.

The official declared we must put the boys in the gallery, and the school at the back. Beverley was waiting till they arrived.

We could not see our pounds. Only one had any money speaking of, and that was Percy, who had been trying for years to save enough to get a cold.

I was just fine, and looking forward to this Easter," he went on to say. "You mind that I had to have a big party arranged to go with the Westenup at the river. We start to pull tomorrow, and our heads are full of things to do. I have been working on a boat and I think it will be ready in time.

I was not sure, as we have been working on it for three years, and it is enough it is to grasp the Dressage of his suffering in which to the Giver, and just enjoy them, and hope, or post-
